“The Rachel Divide”
film presentation & discussion
July 11, 2018 – 7 pm

Join us for a viewing of the documentary "The Rachel Divide," a 2018 film exploring the story of Rachel Dolezal; - Ms. Dolezal, a chapter president for the NAACP, was catapulted into controversy because she insisted that she was African American even though she had been born and raised by white parents.

Following the film, Springfield NAACP President Teresa Haley will moderate a discussion.

This event is free and open to the public. If you have any questions, please contact either Marsh Wijitunge or Rev. Woulfe.
